SUNDAY 13TH NOVEMBER 2022

Remembrance Sunday

Today we recall the service and sacrifice of all who went to war and those they left behind.

"But the souls of the upright are in the hands of God, and no torment can touch them. To the unenlightened, they appeared to die, their departure was regarded as disaster, their leaving us like annihilation; but they are at peace." Wisdom 3: 1-3

Fr Martin writes, Correction:

Our apologies for a misprint in last week's newsletter, which stated that the Remembrance Sunday service at the Cenotaph in Norfolk Square begins at 11am. 11am is the time when the two minute silence begins; the service starts at 10:50am. People who would like to join in the parade are asked to arrive at the Municipal Buildings car park by 10:30am.

'Getting the most from the Mass' is a talk given online last week by Fr Paul Turner, dean of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception (Kansas City, Missouri, USA) and author of several liturgical books. You can view the talk for free by visiting Fr Martin's Youtube channel (www.youtube.com/fathermartin).

Editor, Liz Nash writes, Our Weekly Offering

We are grateful to all of you who have increased your weekly offering recently, your contribution to the rising costs in keeping our churches open and warm is greatly appreciated.

If you are yet to do so, please consider an increase as soon as you can.

The various costs in maintaining our church buildings are very high, and often less obvious to parishioners. e.g. the recent insurance bill for our churches and the church hall was £6096.

Thank you for your continued support.

World Day of the Poor

Pope Francis has declared Sunday 13th November 2022 to be the sixth World Day of the Poor, with the theme of "For your sakes Christ became poor" (2 Cor 8:9).

In his message for this World Day of the Poor, Pope Francis reflects on the words of St Paul to the Church in Corinth and invites Christians to greater solidarity and responsibility for the poor. "That is precisely what solidarity is: sharing the little we have with those who have nothing, so that no one will go without. The sense of community and of communion as a style of life increases and a sense of solidarity matures."

Pope Francis notes that the year comes:

"as a healthy challenge, helping us to reflect on our style of life and on the many forms of poverty all around us."

Joint Parish Christmas Fayre:

Our Christmas Fayre is on Saturday 26th November, from 11am – 3pm, in St Mary's hall. Entry is £1, which includes a cup of tea/coffee, and under 16's can enter for free! The car park at St Philip Howard CVA will be open all day. Donations are still needed for the bottle stall, and especially for CAKES on the day. Please give any donations to Margaret Maloney (ASC) or to Liz Nash (SMC). Thank you. Helpers are needed, both on the day and on the evening before, from 7pm, to set up the stalls. Thank you for your support.

Volunteer Rob Faulkner writes:

HELPING HANDS

We are a group of volunteers in St Mary's and All Saints parishes offering help with things like shopping, light gardening, visiting and short car journeys.

We have room for more volunteers, so if you are interested in getting involved, please come and talk to us at St Mary's Church on Saturday November 19th between 1.30 and 2.30pm. If you are interested but cannot come at that time, please contact Rob Faulkner.
